

Died.

Emma Maria, wife of A. C. McLaughlin, died at her home in Gettysburg last Saturday afternoon after a period of invalidism extending through many months. Deceased was 39 years of age, leaves a husband and five small children, had been a resident of this community since the spring of 1883, when the family came here from Mendota, Ill.

The funeral services occurred yesterday at 10 o'clock at the Baptist church, Rev. Metcalf officiating.

J. R. Earnest, of Joplin, Mo., brother-in-law of A. C. McLaughlin, was here last week. He returned home Saturday, taking with him little "Blossie," Mr. McL.'s motherless daughter. June 5 1891
