"If you would elevate others" 1
You must lift from Higher Ground 1

"If you would elevate others"

- Joseph Smith
"If you will elevate others, the very work itself will exalt you. Upon no other plan can a man justly and permanently aggrandize himself." Those two adverbs suggest to me that it is possible temporarily and unjustly to aggrandize yourself; but permanently, no." (See They Knew the Prophet, p. 61., Recollection of Oliver B. Huntington in YWJ 2 (May 1891): 366;)

You must lift from Higher Ground

- Harold B Lee
"You cannot lift another soul until you are standing on higher ground than he is. You must be sure, if you would rescue the man, that you yourself are setting the example of what you would have him be. You cannot light a fire in another soul unless it is burning in our own soul." ("Stand Ye in Holy Places," Ensign, July 1973)
