

Letter to Margrethe 1900:

Christiania May 28 1900

(Printed: Greetings from Kristiania)

Dear Sister!

(...)

The 17th of May I was at the Fortress (meaning Akershus Festning) where it was dancing and fireworks and a lively party for all. All factories and businesses are closed thatare free. (probably explaining that everything is closed on 17th of May and everyone have holiday that day)

(Upside down is written :)

... from your brother write

...are over there xxx Martin Tesli Herslebsgt 9 III (III meaning building entrance no 3)