

Oslo, December 15th 1954

Dear sister!

I suppose you have been wondering why I have not written to you, and I wonder also. But however I am still going strong, out in town every day, and that I thank God for, I am soon 84 years old. I am still going on in my business, one had to earn some money for make living and it is going well. All is well with my folks. The Christmas evening we all are dining at my youngest son Leif's house. I enclose a picture taken of me in my house just a month ago, and I hope you will send me one taken of you. Now, I hope you soon will send me a letter, and I wish you and your family a very happy Christmas and a very happy new year.

Best regard you brothers
Martin